2021 COLUMBIA VALLEY CABERNET SAUVIGNON

POINTS

“This is the best iteration of this bottling that I have tasted to date. It is solidly Cabernet Sauvignon, with spot-on varietal fruit character accented by moderate oak toast, supple texture, fine balance and a long food friendly finish. The choice of adding a healthy dollop of Malbec was a wise one — it fleshes the package up nicely and adds to the cassis dominant profile, and some no-oak wine in the blend keeps the freshness in front.”

POINTS

“This is a soft and dark-fruited cabernet showing blackberry, mint-leaf, blackcurrant and brewed-tea aromas. Medium- to full-bodied, supple and balanced with fine tannins.”
